

Hoodstock XV - Saturday, October 13, 2018

Hoodstock is a grass roots music festival with its roots based on the rock/folk music scene of the late '60s and early '70s mixed with contemporary music. Originally founded in 2004 as a neighborhood event before its popularity made all the Baltimore region its "hood" Hoodstock is now a major fundraiser to benefit Unified Community Connections and all they do to advance the independence of children and adults with disabilities.

Hoodstock is considered to be the anti-black-tie charity event where guests "Just Say No to Black-Tie and Yes to Tie-Dye!" Hoodstock is a casual, laidback, family-friendly event where attendees enjoy live music along with good food, beer, and wine all for a modest ticket price. Many of the bands that perform include band members who have a direct connection to the mission of Unified. Approximately 400 people attended last year raising more than $82,000!
